THE INSCRIPTIONS OF TIGLATH-PILESER III
KING OF ASSYRIA

Critical edition with Introductions, Translations, and Commentary
Second printing with addenda et corrigenda

ISBN 978-965-208-175-9 xvi + 320 pp., 62 pls. $80

Assyrian royal scribes kept detailed records of the epoch-making campaigns and achievements of Tiglath-pileser III (745–727 BCE), founder of the Neo-Assyrian Empire. The fragmentary remains of these inscriptions were discovered at Nimrud in 1845, but most of them were lost or reburied, leaving later scholars to rely on flawed editions.

Hayim Tadmor's edition of the inscriptions of Tiglath-pileser III reconstructs the original texts on the basis of first-hand copies, many of them prepared at the site. Their evidence is supplemented by related inscriptions discovered at Nimrud and other Assyrian sites. The transcribed Akkadian text is accompanied by a critical apparatus, an English translation and an extensive philological and historical commentary. The introductory material, excursuses and supplementary studies treat a panoply of scholarly issues relating to the texts, including their historical and biblical context.

Upon its publication in 1994, The Inscriptions of Tiglath-pileser III, King of Assyria, was greeted with laudatory reviews and soon became an indispensable research tool for Assyriologists in general and for scholars of Neo-Assyrian history in particular. Perhaps the best indicator of the quality and importance of a scholarly publication is the speed with which the first printing is sold out. In this respect, demand for the volume exceeded all expectations.

This second printing of Hayim Tadmor's magnum opus includes a further list of Addenda et Corrigenda, based on suggestions that appeared in scholarly reviews.
